CODE OF CONDUCT

Discipline is important in any phase of life, especially in the service of the Lord. For this reason, we want each student/intern/participant to be aware of their responsibilities as mature Christians and while a member of this University in any capacity.

Every student/intern/participant must respect the following code of behavior:

TESTIMONY

The University expects each student/intern/participant to submit to the teachings of the Bible and give a good testimony of what it means to be a born-again Christian, whether on campus or off campus.

- A. Conduct that violates the biblical principles of the Gospel of the Kingdom of Jesus Christ is grounds for dismissal. Examples of this are:
1. Criminal activity
 2. Promiscuity or sexual relations of any kind outside of traditional marriage of one man with one woman.
 3. Drunkenness and/or illicit drug use
 4. Abusive behavior towards others
 5. Apostasy or rejection of the tenets of the Christian faith.
 6. Academic dishonesty – particularly with online material
 7. Misconduct
- B. The student/intern/participant is expected to serve faithfully in their local church, since the University is not a substitute for the local church. Faithfulness to a church demonstrates that the student is a responsible Christian, who will be faithful as a minister of the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

COMPLAINT RESOLUTION AND APPEALS

Any questions, concerns, conflicts, or complaints, in favor of or against a student/intern can be referred to the professor or members of the staff. In case any situation cannot be resolved through this channel or if the student/intern/participant does not agree with the answer given, the student/intern/participant has the option to appeal to the Dean's Office in writing. The Dean's Office will make the proper investigations and respond as soon as possible from the date the notification was made.

DRESS CODE

Students/interns/participants are expected to dress in a manner that is honoring to God and shows respect towards their professors and fellow students. Therefore, proper dress attire is required for all students/interns while at the University. In particular, revealing clothing, miniskirts or short shorts are not permitted in class.

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

From time to time, students/interns/participants will be asked to participate in events that are beneficial to their spiritual growth, such as conferences, prayers, youth activities, and other training.

VISITORS

Persons who are not registered to a class are not permitted to sit in the classroom. However, guest visitors or parents may occasionally sit in one class with the permission of the professor.

FOOD AND BEVERAGES IN THE CLASSROOMS

Under no circumstances will food or beverages be allowed in any of the classrooms or teaching area. There will be a designated area for food and refreshments.

I have read, understood, and agree to all of the terms and conditions included in this Code of Conduct.
